

Johari Aman claimed top spot at DGCC Perodua World Amateur Golf Championship 2016 Qualifying Round

Kuching:- Johari Aman of Kelab Golf Sarawak was declared Group A champion at the recent Perodua World Amateur Golf Championship 2016 first qualifying round held at Damai Golf & Country Club on 10th April, 2016. The other champions of the respective categories were as follows:- Group B – Awang Sani Awang Seruji, Group C – Syed Zyed Wan Asnawi, Group D – Sapiee Saidi & Group E – Razmi Mohd Omar. In the invitation category Edwin Abit emerged champion after beating five other guest players for the top spot.

The tournament which attracted a fully packed 120 participants and played under excellent weather condition was the perfect start for WAGC's earliest qualifying round. According to DGCC General Manager, Roslan Mohd Salleh, the club management had taken extra efforts to make sure that the tournament venue conformed to WAGC's high standard. The organizers were very pleased with the conditions of the fairways, superb fast greens and pin settings and overall handing of the tournament and had pledged to hold this event again at DGCC in 2017. Champions of the respective categories will automatically qualify for the final round to be held at the KLGCC.

One of the highlights during the tournament was a hole in one achieved by Jamit Imbak at the scenic Par 3, Hole 8, Ocean Nine. For his effort Jamit took home a Chronoforce Sports wristwatch donated by Starworld Timepiece Sdn. Bhd and 3 hotel room vouchers valued at RM2,000.00 donated by SEDC's Tourism & Leisure Division. DGCC also contributed prizes for the 2nd and 3rd placed winners of the respective categories.

In his speech during the prize presentation ceremony, Roslan took the opportunity to inform participants of upcoming major golf events at DGCC which among them includes the Prudential Astro Masters, The Sarawak Masters', The SEDC Chairman's Trophy, DGCC's 20th Anniversary Tournament and GM SEDC Trophy and Director of SEDC's Tourism & Leisure Trophy Team Match play tournament and a few other exciting golf events. Prizes to winners of the respective categories were presented by SEDC's Director of Tourism & Leisure Division, Encik Edwin Abit
